To the teachers who are leaving Lincoln Park High School, we the students, dedicate this Log. You depart from here knowing that behind are both happy and sad memories. The memories of past students who came to you for advice and guidance, and the delight in which you gave it. To us you have left a debt which can never be repaid. For your long and faithful service, we thank you.

....Within these pages we have recorded treasured photographs, unforgettable names, and memorable events of the past school year.

To the underclassmen, this year represents a steppingstone towards knowledge and wisdom. Knowledge will be gained through their remaining years of study. Wisdom will be acquired by learning to apply this knowledge in their everyday lives. The qualities of leadership and sportsmanship, and the desire to participate and compete, will prove to be invaluable assets in the years ahead.

To the graduates, this year symbolizes one of the final steps toward the formation of their future. Their deeds and accomplishments will be forever immortalized here, along with the many activities which help to make the senior year so enjoyable. Character and personality have been formed by the acceptance of responsibilities. They are now well prepared to meet life's problems with courage and determination.

With the guidance and cooperation of the administration and the faculty, we are led through the most important years of our lives with patience and understanding. To them, we, the students and graduates of Lincoln Park High School, will be forever grateful.

Variety Around School

Let's view a typical English class in operation.

Night football games draw a large crowd to the LPHS stadium. Many action plays, such as this one, are seen over and over by the fans.

Coach Kohs finds the going a little rough during one of the home football games last fall. His team ended the season with a good record .

School is a Busy Place

This should be a good cake with all the cooks watching. Notice the egg dropping into the dish. The Home Economics Department is one of the best in the area.

Mr. Pietenpol checks out the work of student Tim Whales during a mechanical drawing class. Boys take many of the Industrial Arts courses offered here, so that they will be able to find themselves jobs upon graduation.

Have you ever been to a basketball game at LPHS? If you have, you would have listened to the pep band during half time. They do the job of pepping up the crowds: win or lose.

The students of Miss Harris present several teas during the school year. Faculty and students both attend these affairs.

Mr. Stark looks over the works of two futures Rembrandts.

LPHS Award Winners

DAN LE BLANC has been representing LPHS in rowing for two years. He won the 150 lb. sculling event last July 4th in the Central State Regatta at Ecorse. In August, Dan plans to bring LPHS its first North American High School Championship while sculling in the Henley Regatta at St. Catherines, Ontario.

CAROL BALDWIN was elected Youth for Christ's Nationa Teen Queen during their convention last December. Caro represented LPHS's V. C. Y. and won in the district an regional contests. She was then selected from 32 girls fro the surrounding states to be queen. Her hobbies consis mainly of being active in school functions. She plans to be Physical Education or Mathematics major next year at M.S.U.

MARIANNE VAUX our French exchange student arrived here last fall to attend our school for a year. Leaving her home on the outskirts of Paris she arrived here to live and learn in our country. Her French education consisted of going to school six days a week, studying all the subjects each year, and in order to graduate from high school she needed to pass a national exam given by the government. We enjoyed having Marianne around our halls this past year and wish her the best of everything in her future life.

GEORGEANN KONIECY a June 1962 graduate has been a majorette for three years. She was chosen Miss Lincoln Park July 1961 and will reign until July 1962. In July she will go to Muskegon and compete for the title of Miss Michigan.

School Snaps

One of the busiest days for a senior is when they receive their graduation pictures. The halls will be filled with groups of them exchanging the snaps.

Talking comes naturally to a gal as Sue Morris shows, but we notice that Gary Steinhauer seems to be doing his part.

Here's the busiest corner around school. You can always find someone resting here. Here we see Judy Lovell, Ernie Boyd, Connie Ferris and Mike LaBeau filling the space.

Football

The Railsplitters, during the 1961 season, had their ups and downs; however, they turned in a respectable 5 win-4 loss season and brought a co-championship and the Little Brown Jug to Lincoln Park.

After losing the opener to Fordson 14–6, the team lost a heartbreaker to Trenton 13–12. Picking up steam the Parkers rolled on to five straight victories, beating Dearborn 27–19, Wayne 14–6, Ypsilanti 16–6, Melvindale 20–13, and Taylor Center 28–19. Our Railsplitters then lost to Edsel Ford 39–0 and Wyandotte 42–13. Nevertheless, the loss to Edsel Ford enabled Melvindale and Edsel Ford to tie with Lincoln Park for the Huron-Rouge Valley Championship.

Basketball

Lincoln Park's basketball fortunes slipped this year as the cagers fell from their league, district, and regional titles to a second place finish both in the Huron Rouge Valley League and the third annual River Rouge Christmas Tournament. The Railsplitters finished second last year, falling to the eventual Class B. Champions, River Rouge, who also took the tourny this year.

Using a zone defense and Coach Brodie's fast-break offense, the team overcame traditional rival Edsel Ford in two contests on their way to an 8 won – 8 lost season. They also split one-and-one with league rival Melvindale and Ypsilanti.

This year's team featured a balanced scoring attack with returning seniors Steve Vincens and Joe Lavictoire leading the way.

This years J–V squad had a 13–3 won-lost record as Bill Payne broke Tom Lamarand's scoring record of 212 points in one season with 237 points.

Cross Country

This season our cross-country team ran itself toward a respectable 7-5 record. Coached by Mr. Elmer Burnie, the Railsplitters tied for an enviable second place in our league and finished among the top nine Class "A" schools in the state. Amid other victories, the thinclads clinched a first place in our division of the Thurston Invitational meet. Lincoln Park continued its pace by sweeping the next three meets against Dearborn, Riverview, and Wayne by 27, 25, and 15 points respectively. Later in the season we succeeded in capturing a desiriable second place among tough competition in the Huron-Rouge Conference meet. Co-captain Bob Mitchell concluded L.P.'s season by following this school's annual custom of qualifying for the state meet.

Meanwhile, our challenging Junior Varsity squad, taking a second place in the Thurston Reserves run, piled up eleven wins to only one loss. Next year's Varsity team will gain several boys from this topnotch group while losing only three seniors. With such potential, next year's squad should come back even stronger.

Benches Tell the Story

Coach Brodie's bench sees many a close call during the basketball season. It seems the coach is just as amazed as his players.

It takes a lot of cheering to push a team on to victory, and LP's baseball bench does a good job of it.

The Freshmen bench during the football season is ready to play its best. These are the grid-iron heros of the future.

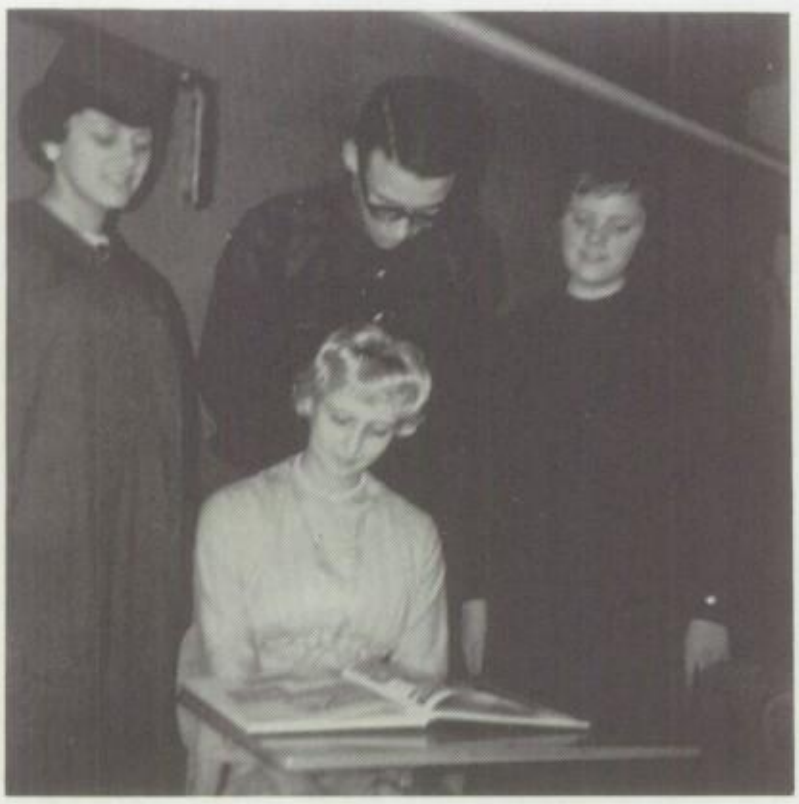
Copy, Pictures, Paste-up Produce Log

The "Monster" gets a work-out from Jean Badoud, Gail Gnich, Joann Cofer and Nancy Blakney.

The selection of pictures is the job of Janet Thomson, Jim Barton, Barbara Gurney, Mike Perry, Lonnie VonRenner and Nancy Flatau.

Yearbook



Having fun looking through past yearbooks are Joann Sawyer, Mike Perry, Nancy Flatau and Jean Badoud.

Jean Badoud has a right to smile as she checks the file to find the record number of yearbook sales.

One of the many spectacular scenes from the musical. Anna teaching the royal children about Western ways.

A fine musical performance was presented to our school last fall in the form of "The King and I". The production, put on by the Choral Department, was lauded as being one of the finest presentations ever produced in our school. The choral group, directed by Mr. Richard Judd, received the assistance of our school band under the baton of Mr. John Doyle. Throughout the performance the scenery reflected well the Oriental flavor of the location, Siam: while the excellent casting helped place the audience in the mood of the popular story.

Showing off the tools of their trade are Most Intelligent Sharon Allen and John Baril.

Even the Most Active rest sometime. Example: Jean Badoud and Dave Brumwell.

Linda Teal and Myron Bates take us back into the dance halls of the Twenties.

January Seniors

It takes a good sense of humor for this one, as Karen Wyatt and Jack VastBinder know.

These two were "wanted" as the Most Popular Alice W. and Sam Gaines.

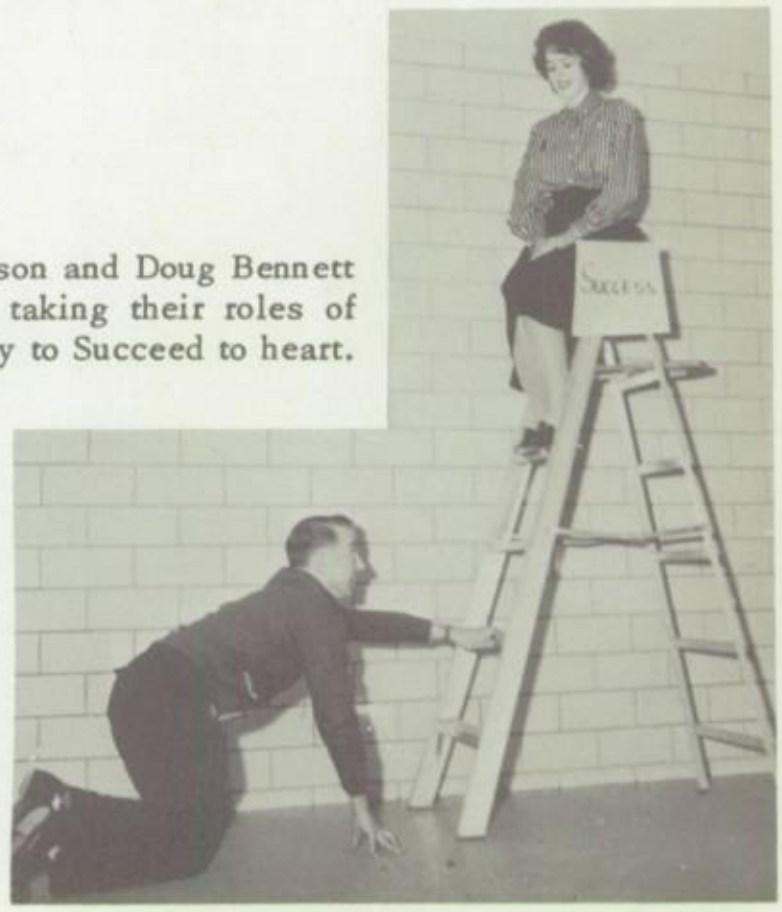
Just because Carol McElroy and Richard Cunningham are the Most Athletic, it doesn't mean they know all.

Donna Ostone and Jim Taylor can talk through anything.

Best Dressed Christine Nielsen and Mike Hefner start an evening in their usual style.

Mock Election

Elaine Williams and Mike Bartinkowski try to disprove the class title of Slowpokes. Think they do?



Alicia Nelson and Doug Bennett are really taking their roles of Most Likely to Succeed to heart.

Spinster Hop

The fall season received a great send-off from the crowd that attended the dance. The Spinster was the first dance of the school year.

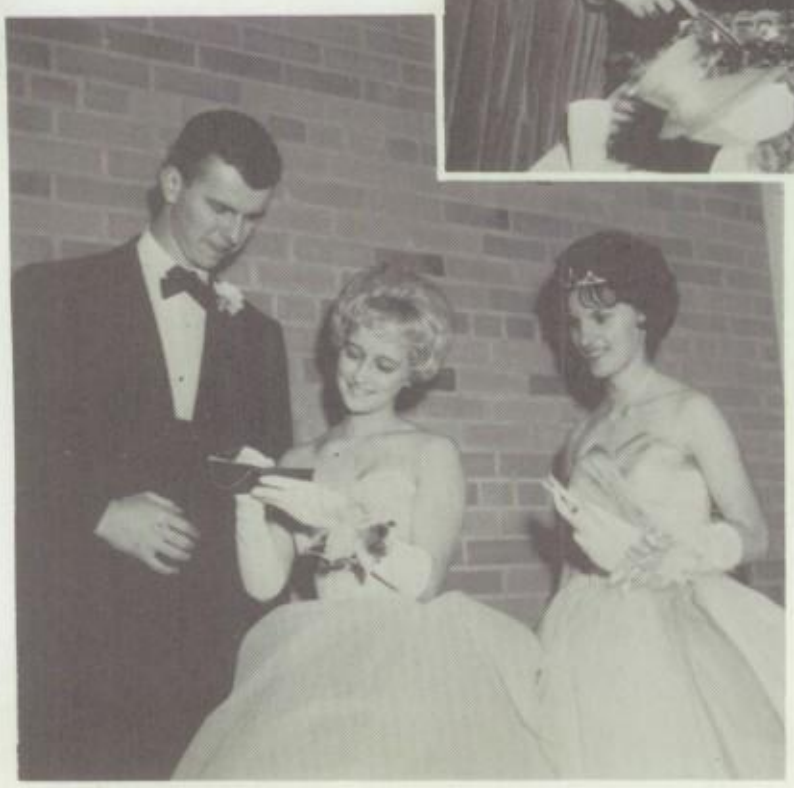
Senior Prom

The Senior Prom is one of the biggest events of the year. The January Class of 1962's ended in nothing but success. The dresses of the young ladies added to the success of the December evening. Wonderland By Night proved to be another evening to remember.

The refreshment table was decorated to the decore of the evening, and was never without couples around.

Pam Wolfe, Ken Yatch, Rod Henson, and Kay Dickman passing through the door that led them to an enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Nowlin and Mr. Zulewski, the sponsors of the January Class taking time out for a little refreshment.



Class officers Hank Hajduk, Jean Badeud, and Alice Waskiewicz see that their dance cards are filled.

Senior Play

Our huge auditorium became the scene for rollicking laughter as the senior play, "My Three Angels," was presented last fall. The story involved three convicts and a troubled family during Christmas in French Guiana, where the temperature graciously dropped to 104 degrees. Congratulations were offered to Mrs. Perkins and the cast after their fine performances.
